

Bringing your travel costs under control

Why direct booking of business trips cuts down on your costs

Do you have the tools to keep your travel costs in check? New TraviBusiness gives you total control over your travel budget. You will reduce your travel costs by increasing levels of cost awareness and booking more of your business trips directly.

Simple to use, clear structures

The graphic booking interface enables lets you make searches quickly and easily and book scheduled flights without the need for major investments in new training. Direct booking gives you a precise cost overview.

Flexibility in travel management

The online self-booking tool is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, liberating you from your past reliance on rigid travel agency opening hours. As a result, you can coordinate your dates with connecting flights that have been checked for availability and valid fare rules.

Increasing cost awareness

Detailed price information creates greater cost awareness amongst company employees.

Find the lowest fares – fast

By accessing Galileo, special and low-cost carrier fares, you can immediately find and book the lowest possible fares. Currently, 50 low-cost carriers are available.

Targeted searching speeds up booking

Different search criteria including direct flights only, Business Class and arrival time simplify your search for suitable flights.

The right data at a click

Once input, passenger-related and personal details can be stored and pulled up whenever needed. It is also possible to transfer passenger details directly from the travel agency, letting you design your work processes to be as efficient as possible.

Book hotels and rental cars fast

Different search criteria let you carry out a precise search for your preferred hotel (by hotel name or chain, location, etc.) and a suitable rental car (by type of car, provider or price). Available offers, including prices, hotel descriptions and car rental conditions, are immediately listed for your use.

Implement travel guidelines and save on costs

Travel guidelines are obligatory for all employees. You input these guidelines once, and the system then checks that these are correct with every new booking.

Be safe in the knowledge that your booking is correct

Travel data are forwarded to your travel agency, subjected to quality control and processed accordingly. Tickets are issued directly at the travel agency.
